

For professors

LASPAU

Professional Development Program Faculty and University Business Officers

YEAR 2017- 2018

Office of Public Diplomacy – Embassy of the United States

The Office of Public Diplomacy of the Embassy of the United States of America is pleased to announce, in collaboration with LASPAU, its annual open competition for the Fulbright Faculty Development Program for faculty staff, professors, and researchers. Applicants must meet the following conditions:

- ❖ Be Haitian citizen currently residing in the country
- ❖ Have the appropriate academic background for the proposed program of study
- ❖ Committed to teaching and/or have professional experience as a teacher
- ❖ Hold a letter of appointment from a Haitian University
- ❖ Must have advanced English language skills (verbal and written)
- ❖ Commit to return to Haiti after completing the course of study
- ❖ Applicants with extensive or recent experience in the U.S. will not be considered, nor will Haitians with legal permanent residence (green card) status or U.S. passport holders be eligible.

Application Submission

Interested parties are requested to complete the application form and submit supporting documents (Letter of appointment, a copy of the first page of your passport, U.S. University suggestions, cover letter, resume, transcript, diploma, and certificates) online using the link below no later than May 31, 2017. We will not accept supporting documents via e-mail or dropped off at the Embassy.

https://laspau.force.com/grantee/Form?tfa_form=14

Supporting documents may be submitted in French; however finalists will be required to translate all documents into English.

Applicants are invited to attend an information session on the Fulbright program and the application process at 8:30 a.m. on March 10, March 17 and April 14, 2016 at the U.S. Embassy in Tabarre. To reserve a seat, send a request to papacademicprograms@state.gov

- Applicants are subject to a two-year mandatory home-country physical presence which entails you to return to your home country for at least two years at the end of your exchange visitor program as required by the J-1 visa.

U.S. Embassy - Office of Public Diplomacy / Fulbright Selection Committee
Boulevard 15 Octobre, Tabarre 41, Port-au-Prince